Fun Fly and

Swap meet

October 15th & 16th 2011

Two days of fun

Bruce Wallace Memorial field

On the Beautiful Lake Oroville Afterbay

All AMA members and spectators are invited

Oroville air corps is opening its field to any AMA member for a fun fly at the Bruce Wallace memorial field.

Bring your land or seaplane for two fun filled days. Our paved runway is 300' long and the lake is very spacious.

No prizes or contest just loads of fun and open flying. Chase boat provided

Gate to field will open at 7:30 am, on Oct 15th 2010. Limited dry camping at site first come first served. Please check with local RV parks or hotels for other options. You will be hard pressed to find another site as nice as ours with both land and sea accommodations. We hope to make this a yearly event, so come join the fun
